How to add a user

1. Click Client Admin to access features of the BMT.

   In the expanded menu, click Create User.

2. Enter the new user’s information and select the correct SubClient option.

   Click Next.

3. Verify that the new user’s information is correctly populated.

   Click Create User.

4. You can now provide the new user with their username and password.